1. Overview of Operating Results

(1) Overview of Operating Results

The results of Sony Financial Group (“Sony FG”) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026 are as follows.

Consolidated ordinary revenues increased 9.6%, compared with the previous fiscal year (“year on year” or “YoY”), to ¥2,871.0 billion, due to an increase in ordinary revenues from the life insurance, the non-life insurance and the banking businesses. Consolidated ordinary profit increased 88.4% year on year, to ¥84.5 billion, due to an increase in ordinary profit from the life insurance and the non-life insurance businesses, whereas ordinary profit from the banking business decreased. Profit attributable to owners of the parent decreased 29.6% year on year, to ¥55.4 billion.

Ordinary revenues and ordinary profit by business segment are as described below.

(Billions of yen)

	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2025 (FY24)	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2026 (FY25)	YoY change
Ordinary Revenues	2,618.7	2,871.0	+252.3	+9.6%
Life insurance business	2,317.0	2,535.0	+217.9	+9.4%
Non-life insurance business	168.8	191.3	+22.4	+13.3%

Life insurance business	20.6	59.4	+38.7	+188.2%
Non-life insurance business	7.2	12.5	+5.3	+73.9%
Banking business	18.8	16.7	(2.1)	(11.5)%

Life insurance business:

Ordinary revenues increased 9.4% year on year, to ¥2,535.0 billion, due to higher foreign exchange gains and ceded reinsurance commissions. Ordinary profit increased 188.2% year on year, to ¥59.4 billion, mainly due to the impact of partial ceding of the in-force block of U.S. dollar-denominated whole life insurance, as well as improved gains (losses) reflecting market fluctuations, such as foreign exchange gains (losses). This increase was partially offset by deteriorated gains (losses) on sale of securities in the general account resulting from the sale of bonds for the purpose of rebalancing based on the ALM (asset-liability management) approach.

The breakdown is as follows:

(Billions of yen)

	FY24	FY25	YoY change
Ordinary Profit	20.6	59.4	+38.7
Temporary gains (losses) on ceded in-force insurance contracts	—	109.9	+109.9
Gains (losses) on sales of securities	(83.4)	(218.3)	(134.9)
Others	104.0	167.8	+63.7

Non-life insurance business:

Ordinary revenues increased 13.3% year on year, to ¥191.3 billion, due to a steady increase in net premiums written centered on mainstay auto insurance. Ordinary profit increased 73.9% year on year, to ¥12.5 billion, due to a decrease in the loss ratio mainly resulting from a decrease in natural disasters.

Banking business:

Ordinary revenues increased 11.0% year on year, to ¥129.8 billion and ordinary profit decreased 11.5%, to ¥16.7 billion, due to a decrease in service revenues from mortgage loans and an increase in general and administrative expenses, while there was an increase in interest income such as interest income on loans and interest income and dividends on securities.

(2) Overview of Financial Conditions

As of March 31, 2026, total assets amounted to ¥23,807.1 billion, increased 1.9% from March 31, 2025. Among major components of assets, securities, mostly government bonds, amounted to ¥18,558.5 billion, increased 5.9% from March 31, 2025. Loans amounted to ¥3,828.7 billion, decreased 1.8%.

Total liabilities were ¥23,177.9 billion, increased 2.1% from March 31, 2025. Major components of liabilities included policy reserves and others of ¥16,314.3 billion, increased 3.0%, and deposits totaled ¥4,600.1 billion, increased 8.4%.

Total net assets were ¥629.2 billion, decreased 6.0% from March 31, 2025. This included net unrealized gains (losses) on available-for-sale securities, net of taxes, which decreased by ¥28.2 billion, to ¥(101.3) billion.

(3) Overview of Cash Flows

Cash flows for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026 were as follows.

Cash flows from operating activities decreased by ¥1,056.6 billion year on year, resulting in net cash inflows of ¥445.4 billion.

Cash flows from investing activities increased by ¥10.5 billion year on year, resulting in net cash outflows of ¥1,191.5 billion.

As a result, cash and cash equivalents at the end of the period decreased by ¥719.0 billion year on year, to ¥483.1 billion.

(4) Consolidated Earnings Forecasts for the Fiscal Year Ending March 31, 2027

Regarding the outlook for the next fiscal year, based on the assumptions set forth below, we forecast a loss before income taxes of ¥20.0 billion and a loss attributable to owners of the parent of ¥16.0 billion.

Sony FG will voluntarily adopt IFRS Accounting Standards for its consolidated financial statements from the first quarter of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027; accordingly, the following business outlook has been prepared in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards.

- Market interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and stock market conditions are assumed not to fluctuate significantly from the levels as of March 31, 2026.
- Operating revenues are based on Sony FG's own outlook, taking into account past performance and other factors.
- The outlook for profit before income taxes by business segment is as follows.

(Billions of yen)

IFRS Accounting Standards	Forecast for fiscal year 2026 (Fiscal year ending March 31, 2027)		(Reference) Results for fiscal year 2025 (Fiscal year ended March 31, 2026)
		YoY change
Profit (loss) before income taxes	(20.0)	—	(11.4)
Life insurance business	(57.5)	—	(41.8)
Non-life insurance business	16.8	+12.9%	14.8
Banking business	22.8	+24.3%	18.3

(Life insurance business)

Sony FG plans to conduct bond sales for rebalancing purposes based on its asset-liability management (ALM) approach, as was the case in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026. Losses on sales of securities are expected to be smaller than those recorded in the previous fiscal year.

Meanwhile, earnings in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026 benefited from the impact of market fluctuations related to minimum guarantees on variable insurance products. As no similar positive impact is expected for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027, loss before income taxes is projected to be larger than that recorded in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026.

(Non-life insurance business)

Although an increase in incurred claims is expected, profit before income taxes is projected to increase compared with the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026, driven by growth in insurance revenue from mainstay automobile insurance business as well as improvements in expense efficiency.

(Banking business)

Despite an increase in operating expenses mainly attributable to higher system-related costs, profit before income taxes is expected to increase compared with the fiscal year ended March 31, 2026, driven by growth in revenues from market operations associated with the accumulation of investment balances and an increase in net interest income.

The above outlook is based on information available as of the date of publication of this material, and actual results may differ materially from these forecasts due to various factors in the future.

2. Basic Considerations in the Selection of Accounting Policies

With the objectives of enhancing international comparability of financial information in the capital markets and illustrating management indicators suitable for the long-term management focus of Sony FG, the Company will voluntarily adopt IFRS Accounting Standards in place of Japanese GAAP as the accounting standards applied to its consolidated financial statements, effective from fiscal year 2026 (the fiscal year ending March 31, 2027).

(Transactions involving the delivery of the Company's shares to employees through a trust)

The Company introduced, in the current fiscal year, a share-based compensation plan using a share-granting ESOP trust ("ESOP Trust") for certain managerial employees of the Company and its group companies who meet certain requirements ("Eligible Employees").

This plan is an employee incentive plan modeled on the U.S. ESOP system, under which shares of the Company acquired by the ESOP Trust and cash equivalent to the proceeds from the disposal of the Company's shares are delivered and paid to Eligible Employees in accordance with the share-granting rules established in advance. The funds used by the trust to acquire the Company's shares are fully contributed by each eligible company, and therefore, Eligible Employees do not bear any cost.
